Provides for payment of group health insurance premiums for retired DAs from the 25th JDC

Purpose: This measure proposes to add the 25th JDC to current law that provides group health insurance premiums to be paid for district attorneys who have retired with 25 years of experience, regardless of age, by their respective judicial district.

The measure also proposes to increase the number of years of experience from 25 to 30 for the retired district attorneys for the 23rd JDC in order to qualify for group health insurance premiums to be paid by the 23rd JDC.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There may be an increase in local governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

According to an official with the 25th JDC, if this measure is approved, expenditures are estimated to increase a total of $25,700 over the next five years. Presently, there is only one retired district attorney with at least 25 years of service.

Officials with the 23rd JDC stated there would be no fiscal impact on the 23rd JDC over the next five years. The current district attorney for the 23rd JDC is in his first term and only has 13 years of service. The only retired district attorney has 32 years of service and would not be effected by this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
